

GPC FAQs for Military and Veteran Students

- Where is the GPC Military Outreach Center (MOC) and how can I contact it?

You can reach the MOC Center on the Clarkston Campus, Building CH – Suite 1300, (678) 891-3025.

Also, look for the Military Outreach Center tables setup in or near the Student Center on each campus.

You also may email your questions to moc@gpc.edu or go to <http://depts.gpc.edu/militaryoutreach/>.

- Am I considered a veteran?

To be considered a veteran, you must have served in the active military and discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable.

FAQs for Military and Veteran Students

Military Outreach Center

• I am no longer in the military. Can I still receive college credit for my military training and experience?

All documented military experience will be carefully evaluated by our transfer credit office, and the maximum allowable credit will be awarded for your military training and experience.

• Who do I contact at GPC with questions regarding my Educational VA benefits?

Please call (678) 891-3535, fax (404) 631-6585, or email us at gpcva@gpc.edu. You may also visit the Office of Student Financial Services and Veterans Affairs located on each of GPC's campuses.

• How do I find answers to other questions regarding VA benefits?

You should go to <http://www.va.gov/>, where the Department of Veterans Affairs presents information and answers to your VA questions.

• Who do I call if I have questions about the military's Tuition Assistance Program?

You should contact Student Accounts (robert.stuart@gpc.edu) or call (678) 240-6151.

• Who do I contact for Academic Advising or guidance?

Go to <http://depts2.gpc.edu/~gpcacs/>, or call the GPC Contact Center at (678) 891-3535. GPC's Advising, Counseling and Retention Services office is dedicated to helping you identify and accomplish your academic, personal and career goals.

• Are Personal Counseling Services available to me at GPC?

Yes, Personal Counseling Services are available at all GPC campuses. Confidential personal counseling assists students with personal, developmental, or psychological concerns related to their academic progress and personal growth. Call the Personal Counseling Access Line at (770) 278-1300 or go to <http://depts2.gpc.edu/~gpcacs/personalcounseling.htm>.

• Who do I contact if I am seeking employment?

Contact GPC Career Services at (404) 631-6585 or email careerservices@gpc.edu.

• Who may I contact at GPC about disabilities and the provision of reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities?

Visit the GPC Center for Disability Services at <http://depts.gpc.edu/cds/> or visit or contact any of the center's campus locations:

Clarkston Campus, CBI300 (inside suite 1200), (678) 891-3385

Decatur Campus, SF2311, (678) 891-2406

Dunwoody Campus, NA2100, (770) 274-5235

Alpharetta Campus, (678) 240-6038

Newton Campus, Bldg 2N, office 2405, (770) 278-1316

GPC Online, (678) 891-3385

• Who do I call to get information about testing?

Visit the Testing Department's website at http://depts2.gpc.edu/~gpcem/testing/testing_index.html, where you will find information and phone numbers to the Testing Centers at each campus.

• Does GPC offer tutoring services?

Yes, go to the Tutoring and Learning Center website at <http://depts.gpc.edu/~gpcitc/index.html>, and you'll find information as well as the location and phone number of the TLC for each campus.

• Is there a link to the current VA Handbook on Federal Benefits for Veterans, Dependents and Survivors?

Yes, go to http://www.va.gov/opa/publications/benefits_book.asp for the entire handbook online.

• Who should I call if I know of someone considering suicide?

Please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at (800) 273-8255, and press 1 for Veteran, or go to <http://depts.gpc.edu/militaryoutreach/suicidepreventionresources.htm>, where you will find information and immediate help.

